2008 Chardonnay Sauvignon Blanc One of my favourite wines to drink now. The extra age provides a wonderfully supple and soft texture with plenty of velvety mouthfeel and subtle sweet nutty flavours. The Sauvignon Blanc adds fruit and keeps the finish crisp and light. Wonderful wine. Medal winner $16.00 ~~$192~~ $180 $

2009 Chardonnay Roasted cashew and almond meal notes from extended maturation on yeast complement the ripe stone fruit, melon and citrus fruit characters on both the nose and palate. Layered, complex, and persistent, this beautifully textured Chardonnay joins the ranks of the cool new Chardonnay brigade. Medal winner $16.00 ~~$192~~ $180 $

2009 Sauvignon Blanc Tropical fruit perfume with fresh lime, mango and papaya notes. A few percent of barrel fermentation and lees aging brings seamless balance, texture, length and complexity to the long, crisp palate. Delightfully fruity with a soft clean finish. Medal winner $16.00 ~~$192~~ $180 $

2010 Sauvignon Blanc 2010 produced small berries with loads of flavour. The nose has punchy tropical fruit and loads of texture, length and complexity and a crisp finish. Some barrel fermentation and lees aging adds extra texture, length and complexity to the long, lively palate. Medal winner $18.50 ~~$222~~ $199 $

2008 Shiraz From the exceptional 2008 vintage, this Shiraz shows lovely raspberry and plum on the nose with just a hint of fresh oak. The rich fruit filled palate has lovely fine grain dusty oak tannins and a firm tight finish. This superb cool climate Shiraz will improve with age into an even more enjoyable wine over the next 5- 10 years. Multiple medal winner $18.50 ~~$222~~ $199 $
